

Reliance Life launches health insurance policy

Reliance Life Insurance has launched Health Total, a non-linked, non-participating and non-variable health cover. The plan provides a fixed benefit cover for hospitalisation, critical illnesses and surgeries, along with reimbursement of other health-related expenses. It has three optional riders: accidental death and total and permanent disablement, major surgical benefit and critical conditions benefit. These can be added to the base plan with additional premiums.

